

PRESENTATIONS OF ROBERT B. WEISENMILLER, PH.D.

1. California's Role: Incentives and Assistance. The Energy Bureau, Inc. Conference on Financing Alternative Energy Development Successfully. Independent Power Corporation. May 2, 1983.
2. Cogeneration in California: Paradise Lost? Cogeneration Market: Opportunities Over the Next Three Years. Cogeneration Report and Power Magazine Conference. 1986.
3. Innovative Gas Contracts: Challenges and Opportunities for Gas-Fired Cogeneration Projects. The Energy Bureau, Inc. Conference. April 8, 1987.
4. Planning for Risk in the Development of Cogeneration Projects. Cogeneration Strategies Conference. Albuquerque. October 6, 1988.
5. Future Avoided Cost Pricing: Trends in the Natural Gas Market and Alternative Pricing Structures. Independent Energy Producers Members Only Presentation. June 26, 1990.
6. Cogeneration Compliance Monitoring and Enforcement of Gas and Electric Tariffs and Avoided Cost Payments. Northern California Cogeneration Association. September 27, 1990.
7. Comments to the American Association of Cogenerators. October 25, 1990.
8. Contracting for Long-Term Natural Gas Supplies and Transportation. Los Angeles Power Producers Association Executive Conference on Natural Gas Procurement in California. February 4, 1991.
9. California's Capacity Brokering Program and Its Effect on Cogenerators. The Natural Gas Procurement Executive Conference. March 9, 1992.
10. Developing a Natural Gas Strategy for Today and Tomorrow. The Executive Session on Fuel Supply Contracting. San Francisco. April 1, 1992.
11. Privatization Leads the Way to New Opportunities in Latin America's Equity Markets. Institute for International Research Conference: Optimizing the Latest Investment Opportunities in Latin American Capital Markets. October 6, 1994.
12. Impacts of Electric Restructuring on Gas Markets. Independent Power Producers of New York's Ninth Annual Membership Meeting and Fall Conference. October 12, 1994.

13. Unbundling the Cost of Capital for Electric Utilities. The Society of Utility and Regulatory Financial Analysts - 29th Financial Forum. 1996.
14. Moving to Competition: Electric Industry Restructuring. Project Finance Division, BA Securities, Inc. San Francisco. March 22, 1996.
15. How Much Are the Assets Worth? The Purchasing Power Generation Facilities in California Seminar. San Francisco. With William A. Monsen. August 9, 1996.
16. Planning for the Competitive Market. Visions of the Competitive Electric Market. San Francisco. September 10, 1996.
17. Competition Transition Charge: Who is Exempt? The Power Association of Northern California. San Francisco. October 10, 1996.
18. Electric Restructuring: Challenges for End-Users. Workshop sponsored by the City of San Diego and the San Diego Associations of Governments. February 21, 1997.
19. Divestiture Opportunities in Massachusetts and California: Impetus and Impact. The Twelfth Annual Cogeneration and Independent Power Market Conference. March 23-25, 1997.
20. Competitive Electricity Marketplace: How Do You Prepare? Conducting Business in the Electricity Marketplace of the Future. Ontario, California. June 20, 1997.
21. Trading Mechanisms and the Power Exchange. Power Association of Northern California. San Ramon. June 24, 1997.
22. Electric Services and Price Volatility. Association of Major Power Consumers in Ontario and Ontario Hydro. Toronto. April 16, 1998.
23. Electricity Prices: Are We Headed for Boom or Bust? Chadbourne & Parke. San Juan, Puerto Rico. June 18, 1999.
24. Trends in the California Energy Market. New York. July 26, 1999.
25. California's ISO and PX: Lessons Learned. Independent Power Producers of New York's 14th Annual Fall Conference. Albany, New York. October 6, 1999.
26. Western Power Markets: Opportunities and Challenges. Independent Energy Producers 19th Annual Meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake, California. October 15-18, 2000.

27. California 2001: The Winter of Our Discontent. Chadbourne & Parke Seminar. New York. January 24, 2001.
28. All Quiet on the Western Front? Energy Restructuring in California Conference. Energy NewsData Corporation. San Francisco. October 5, 2001.
29. All Quiet on the Western Front? Independent Energy Producers 20th Annual Meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. October 7-10, 2001.
30. Forces Reshaping Competitive Power Markets in the WSCC. GasMart 2002. Sparks, Nevada. March 17-19, 2002.
31. Western Energy Markets: In the Eye of the Storm? Independent Energy Producers 21st Annual Meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. September 23-24, 2002.
32. Western Power Markets: Opportunities and Challenges. PG&E National Energy Group 4th Annual Customer Event. Silverado Country Club, Napa, California. October 1, 2002.
33. California Energy Markets: Is There Light at the End of the Tunnel? Independent Energy Producers 22nd Annual Meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. September 22, 2003.
34. Rebuilding California's Wholesale Electricity Market: Progress and Challenges. New Direction for California Energy Markets. Law Seminars International. September 16-17, 2004.
35. Gas Market Dynamics & Infrastructure. Independent Energy Producers Association 23rd Annual meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. September 26-29, 2004.
36. Near-term Expectations for California's Power Market. California Energy Markets. September 19, 2005.
37. How Markets Fared This Summer and What to Expect in 2007. California Energy Markets. September 25-26, 2006.
38. How Markets Fared This Summer and What to Expect in 2007. Independent Energy Producers Association 26th Annual meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. October 9, 2006.
39. Nuclear Power in California: 2007 Status Report. With Steven C. McClary. 2007 Integrated Energy Policy Report Committee Nuclear Issues Workshop. June 25 and 28, 2007.
40. Framework for Evaluating Greenhouse Gas Implications of Natural Gas-fired Power Plants in California. With Steve McClary. California Energy Commission Workshop. Sacramento. June 23, 2009.

41. Trends and Game-Changers in the California Power Market. Independent Energy Producers Association 29th Annual meeting. Fallen Leaf Lake. September 16-17, 2009.